Surrender Your Life

There lived a young craftsman, Yeshua His name.
A worker of wood,
He was skilled in His trade.
He labored by day and
He taught them by night.
And set an example
to do what is right.

Surrender Your Life

And as the years passed it became ever clear.

Redeemer of men was the reason He came.

To all who would follow salvation was near.

He healed them from all of their sin and their shame.

He sought neither fortune nor fame.

Surrender Your Life

Now, He is with The Father, seated up high on His throne.

One day to come
the victorious Son.

Won't you take up
your cross in His name?

Surrender your life to The Way.

Surrender Your Life

Now, many will come claiming they are the one.
They'll gather their flocks,
keep them under their thumb.
But the Lord brought salvation from heaven above.
He went to the cross and He showed us His love.

Surrender Your Life

There's a day that will come when His presence He'll show.

A day that mankind never wished there to be.

A time of distress that the world's never known.

Maybe you can escape,
with the righteous you'll flee.

Forever with Jesus to be.

Surrender Your Life

Now, He is with The Father,
seated up high on His throne.

One day to come
the victorious Son.

Won't you take up
your cross in His name?

Surrender your life to The Way.
