Justified

One day all the saints will live by His mighty hand.
All things we will come to know,
all things understand.
When we stand in victory,
in His presence we will be.
With our Savior we will ride,
for we have been glorified.

Justified

As the temple of our God
we shall rise again.
Death's dominion, overcome.
It was not the end.
Life eternal surely waits
for all those who truly do believe.
And the angels shout with joy
for the ones the Savior did receive.

Justified

Now the chosen have been raised,
by His will we've overcome the grave.
And through Him we're glorified,
first-born of all men, we're justified.

Justified

On the day we're raised anew, then the world will see.
Spirit beings lifted up,
ours the victory!
Magnifying Him on high
Who has given us this precious life.
With the angels praising Him,
He has taken from us all our sin.

Justified

Now eternity awaits, we will reign above.
Blessed Savior's time has come,
time to rule in love.
As the world lies dark below,
to the Mount of Olives He will go.
As the valley opens wide,
on white horses we are by His side.

Justified

Now the chosen have been raised,
by His will we've overcome the grave.
And through Him we're glorified,
first-born of all men, we're justified.
