Now Is The Time

Look all around,
discern the signs.
There's so much happening
prophetic are the lines.
Seems every day
new things revealed.
Our Savior holds the scroll that's soon to be unsealed.

Now Is The Time

Prepare yourselves to serve the King.

Soon comes the Conquering One fulfilling everything.

When comes His wrath upon the earth

His judgment on mankind determining their worth.

Now Is The Time

He's soon to come the Mighty One
and on a steed, He rides.

A sword protruding from His mouth
and fire in His eyes!

Now is the time. We must be wise.

Our house is burning to the ground.

His sign appears on high.

Now is the time we must embrace.

Before our house burns to the ground
before we see His face.

Now Is The Time

Time's getting short, end's getting near.
Focus increasing now becoming crystal clear.
Witness events
as they unfold.
Choices we all must make,
the meek become the bold.

Now Is The Time

Taking a stand for righteousness.
We know in doing so
the weak are truly blessed.
Enduring to the bitter end vict'ry belongs to us
our destiny to win.

Now Is The Time

He's soon to come the Mighty One
and on a steed, He rides.

A sword protruding from His mouth
and fire in His eyes!

Now is the time. We must be wise.

Our house is burning to the ground.

His sign appears on high.

Now is the time we must embrace.

Before our house burns to the ground
before we see His face.
