

*The Wave
Sheaf Offering*

Transition: God's Spring Holy Days

- Passover symbolizes our redemption from this world and the forgiveness of our sins.
- Unleavened Bread typifies our lifelong task of coming out of sin and putting on the new man in sincerity and truth.

Offerings to the Lord

■ Leviticus 1 – 6

- We are most familiar with the Burnt, Meal, Peace, Sin and Trespass / Guilt Offerings
- However, other offerings, required to be given on special occasions, played significant roles in broadening our understanding of God and specific parts of God's Plan.

■ Wave Sheaf Offering:

- Occurring on only one day each year, it is far from minor or obscure in its meaning to salvation. In fact, we could say that, “without what it means to our salvation, there would be no salvation”!

Wave the Sheaf Before the LORD

■ Leviticus 23:9-21

- Wave Sheaf consisted of an omer of barley, still on the stalk, cut at the beginning of the spring harvest.
- Initially, each Israelite possessing a harvest was required to give an offering.
- The priest would wave the offering before the God for acceptance.
- One official waving of a sheaf by a priest in Jerusalem represented all brought by individuals.
- The Wave Sheaf offering represented a thankful acknowledgement to God, as Giver of the harvest, while dedicating or consecrating it to Him.

Wave the Sheaf Before the LORD

■ Leviticus 23:9-21

- The priests began to make the first cutting right at the end of the Sabbath, continuing over into the first day of the week, when the bulk of the work would be done.
- The offering was not complete until the first sheaf of barley had been threshed or crushed by a “threshing sledge” or “threshing board”.
- The threshed barley was then presented before God, the next morning, between 9 AM – Noon.

Waving the Omer

The Wave Sheaf Offering Spiritual Harvest

■ John 4:35-36

- “There are still four months and then comes the harvest? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest. And he who reaps receives wages and gathers fruit for eternal life, that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together.”
- The spiritual harvest is of people to eternal life.

■ Matthew 9:36-38

- “But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd. Then He said to His disciples, The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.”

The Firstborn Among Many Brethren

- Romans 8:29 "...firstborn among many brethren."

- Revelation 14:4 "These are the ones who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were redeemed from among men, being firstfruits to God and to the Lamb."

- Mark 15:42 "Now when evening had come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath [an annual Sabbath, the first day of Unleavened Bread]"

The True Wave Sheaf

- Matthew 12:39-40 "...An evil and adulterous generation craves for a sign [attesting miracle] and yet no sign will be given it, but the sign of Jonah, the prophet: for just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the sea creature, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth."
- Counting three days and three nights from Jesus' burial in the tomb on Wednesday evening near sunset brings us to Saturday evening near sunset. As the Sabbath was ending, the Father burst the bonds of Christ's death by the power of His Holy Spirit and resurrected Him as very God.
